Chisholm Trail Hospice provides compassionate and high-quality end-of-life care for Stephens County and surrounding communities.

As a part of this care, the presence and contribution of volunteers is a core part of the interdisciplinary team approach.

What do Hospice Volunteers do?

Our Respite Hospice Volunteers are matched with a patient and they spend time with the patient and their families. They provide caregiver relief and companionship.

Our Organizational Support Volunteers help with the operation of the Hospice Program (including office work, trade shows, fairs and other projects)

Can I be a Hospice Volunteer?

As you contemplate becoming a Hospice Volunteer, ask yourself these 5 questions:

- Do I work well as a team member?
- Am I willing to help others in the way they want me to help?
- Am I flexible enough to accept other views of death without being judgmental?
- Am I independent enough to work on my own?
- Do I have a sense of humor as well as empathy?

Hospice Volunteer Training Includes:
